

Louis Lunch

Birth Place of the Hamburger

Born: 1895
Owner: Lassen Family
Head Chef: Jeff Lassen
Food Type: Hamburgers
Dress Code: Casual
Address: 263 Crown Street
New Haven
Connecticut
Capacity: 30
Reservation: Not taken
Credit Cards: Not taken
Relocations: 4
Claim to fame: Invented the hamburger

LOUIS'
LUNCH

NEW HAVEN, CT OF

A Historic Move

Location	Years	Impetus
Meadow Street	1895-1907	Close to Factories
George Street	1907-1917	Permenant location for cart
George Street	1917-1974	Cart to physical building
Crown Street	1974-Present	Urban renewal

Louis Lassen filled the demand for something quick and delicious for the factory and office workers on the go. According to the the Lassen family the first ever hamburger sandwich was created by Mr. Louis Lassen in 1900

Tasty Methods

The Louis Lunch burger is a closely guarded secret, but a few things can be discerned.

- Original 1900 vertical flame broilers, for dual side cooking
- Secret blend of five different cuts of ground beef
- Cheese, Tomato, or Onion
- NO Mustard
- NO Ketchup
- NO Mayonnaise
- Two toasted slices of white bread

